Reflect + Discuss

- How long have you been in Madison? What brought you here? What are some of your favorite things to do in the city? (Adjust this question if you are not meeting in Madison).
- How have you been impacted by multigenerational relationships in your life? What are some of the benefits and challenges of building these relationships? Why is it important for the church to live out this vision of being multigenerational?
- Read Revelation 5:9-10 and Revelation 7:9-10. This is God's vision for a multicultural kingdom. How have you been impacted by multicultural relationships in your life? Why is it important for the church to live out this vision?
- What does it mean to approach community as a mission-field, not a battlefield?
- Read Jeremiah 29:5-7. What are some practical ways we can seek the welfare of our city? What might flourishing look like in your neighborhood, city, school, or workplace?
- What steps can you take to grow and be transformed this fall, whether on your own or with others? (Some ideas: Being in group-life, taking a course, personal study, spiritual practices, serving, giving, etc.).

Pray

- Pray that God will help us to deepen our understanding of Him through reading scripture. Pray that he will transform us more into his image and that he will help us discern what next steps to take to grow this fall.
