

Preparing for Death

Guidelines for families facing the death of a loved one

Planning Ahead

- Locate and review all relevant records: medical advance directives, will(s), financial records (including bank accounts), and life insurance policies.
- Has the dying family member made plans to donate organs? If yes, be sure to inform the pertinent hospital.
- Compile a brief list of people who should be notified at the time of death. Include both phone numbers and e-mail addresses, if possible.

To simplify calling, prioritize as follows:

1. Those to be notified immediately

_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

2. Those who can be notified after funeral arrangements & related details have been finalized.

_____	_____

- Select a funeral home:

At the Time Of Death

- Contact Blackhawk Church (608.828.4200) about meeting with the family. (after office hours or on week-ends follow the prompts to leave a message for the pastor on call) This meeting can be held at the hospital, at home or at the funeral home, whichever is more convenient for the family.
- Notify the funeral home.
- Begin to notify those on your short list who need to know immediately.
- Designate a Family Representative to handle all communication with the attending pastor and funeral home. This will greatly simplify the planning process.

Next Day

- Meet with the funeral home representative to make final arrangements for disposition of the body (i.e., burial or cremation), services, obituary, and cemetery arrangements.
- Consider information to be included in the obituary (i.e., family connections, life highlights, special awards or recognitions, memberships, etc.). The funeral home will submit the obituary to newspaper, but the family will need to provide the information.
- Begin to locate and organize memorabilia (e.g., pictures, Bible, letters) for possible display at the funeral or memorial service.
- The designated pastor from Blackhawk will inform Blackhawk personnel of anticipated arrangements, and coordinate details with appropriate staff members.
