

“It’s better to give than to receive”

“No one can serve two masters” (Both God and money)

“The love of money is the root of all evil”

<sup>13</sup> Someone in the crowd said to him, “Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me.”

<sup>14</sup> Jesus replied, “Man, who appointed me a judge or an arbiter between you?”

Luke 12:13-14 (NIV)

<sup>16</sup> And he told them this parable: “The ground of a certain rich man yielded an abundant harvest.

<sup>17</sup> He thought to himself, ‘What shall I do? I have no place to store my crops.’ <sup>18</sup> “Then he said,

‘This is what I’ll do. I will tear down my barns and build bigger ones, and there I will store my surplus grain. <sup>19</sup> And I’ll say to myself, “You have plenty of grain laid up for many years. Take life easy; eat, drink and be merry.””

Luke 12:16-19 (NIV)

20 “But God said to him, ‘You fool! This very night your life will be demanded from you. Then who will get what you have prepared for yourself?’

21 “This is how it will be with whoever stores up things for themselves but is not rich toward God.”

Luke 12:20-21 (NIV)

Fear – “I won’t have enough”

Greed – “I need more”

Status – “I am what I have”

We can only grow so far spiritually
without growing our trust in what God has to say about our relationship to money.

Life does not consist in an abundance of possessions.

22 . . . “Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat; or about your body, what you will wear. <sup>23</sup> For life is more than food, and the body more than clothes. <sup>24</sup> Consider the ravens: They do not sow or reap, they have no storeroom or barn; yet God feeds them. And how much more valuable you are than birds!

Simplicity

The background consists of a dense, overlapping pattern of small, square icons. These icons are rendered in a dark, muted color palette, primarily consisting of shades of blue, teal, and purple, with some hints of red and orange. The icons themselves are diverse, representing various concepts such as social media, technology, nature, and abstract symbols. Some recognizable icons include a smartphone, a Wi-Fi signal, a globe, a leaf, a lightbulb, a speech bubble, and a paperclip. The overall effect is a textured, busy background that contrasts with the clean, minimalist text in the center.
