Sexuality in the Old Testament

Richard M. Davidson

“The final verse of the creation narratives sets forth the divine approbation upon uninhibited, sensuous—yes, erotic—sexuality.

Adam and Eve stand before each other, naked and unashamed. They look at each other, delighting in each other’s bodies.

They are deeply passionately,
romantically, in love.

With economy of words and delicacy of taste, the narrator
paints a scene of human sexuality as God designed it should be.”

³¹ “For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and the two will become one flesh.” ³² This is a profound mystery—but I am talking about Christ and the church.

³² I would like you to be free from concern.
An unmarried man is concerned about the Lord's affairs—how he can please the Lord. ³³ But a married man is concerned about the affairs of this world—how he can please his wife— ³⁴ and his interests are divided.

1 Corinthians 7:32-34a (NIV)

³⁴ . . . An unmarried woman or virgin is concerned about the Lord's affairs: Her aim is to be devoted to the Lord in both body and spirit. But a married woman is concerned about the affairs of this world—how she can please her husband. ³⁵ I am saying this for your own good, not to restrict you, but that you may live in a right way in undivided devotion to the Lord.
